

PRICES OF EGGS SOAR IN CAPITAL MARKETS

Little to Comfort Housewives Except a Small Cut on Meats.

String Beans and Corn Scarce, and Some Fruits Have Disappeared.

Except for a lowering in the price of some grades of meats, there is little in the market quotations today to make the Washington housewife particularly happy. Eggs are rapidly assuming a "hands off" position, except for the wealthy. In the past week henry eggs, guaranteed to be absolutely fresh, advanced to 45 and 50 cents a dozen, a raise of 5 cents on the dozen in the week. The market for eggs of southern eggs is quoted at 30 cents a dozen, and gathered eggs, the kind ordinarily sold in the stores, are quoted at 35 to 38 cents a dozen. These prices are practically the same at which eggs sold on the corresponding day a year ago.

String beans and corn are becoming scarce on the market and have advanced in price, the former selling at a quarter peck, as they did a week ago, and the latter at 30 to 40 cents a bushel, an advance of 10 cents in the week.

Thriving Trade in Pumpkins.
Raspberries and damsons, which have been on the market up to this time, have had their season and have disappeared until the coming of another summer. Big yellow pumpkins, the kind that are used for making Halloween pumpkin pies and jack-o'-lanterns, are to be found in the markets in abundance and ranging in size from one about as big as your head for 10 or 15 cents up to one as big as a bucket. The pumpkin dealers are doing a thriving trade with the young people, who will make lanterns for tomorrow night. The meat dealers announce a drop of 2 cents a pound on the cheaper cuts of beefsteak, and 1 cent a pound on the less desirable grades of pork shoulder and the better grades of smoked shoulder. Butcher remains up last night in price, but the dealers are looking for an advance in the next week or two. An advance they always come about this season of the year. The market today was well attended by buyers, and the dealers report good business.

GOOD DEMAND FOR FISH.

Wharf Market Reports Supply of All Kinds Is Excellent.

According to report made by wholesale dealers in sea food at the wharf market, foot of 11th street southwest, both the supply and demand for fresh fish of all kinds is excellent. Large gray trout are being received in good quantities from the New Jersey coast fisheries and Chesapeake bay and the lower Potomac are contributing to keep the market well supplied. The good demand has prevented any radical drop in prices, though on many fish prices are somewhat lower than a week ago.

CATARH GERMS EASILY KILLED

Only Way To Cure This Disease Is To Destroy Its Cause.

If you have catarrh and want to get rid of it you must kill the germs which cause catarrh. Stomach, duodenum, ureters, bladder, etc., are all infected by these germs. They look like fat. They all help by giving temporary relief, but they do not reach the germ life that has found lodgment in your head, nose, throat, and could not destroy it if they did.

The best known way of destroying the dangerous germs of catarrh and curing the disease itself, is to breathe into the air passage of your mouth and nose, penetrating air of Hyomel (pronounced High-mel). Hyomel is made from purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other powerful, healing, antiseptic and germicidal ingredients. You breathe it through a little pocket inhaler which (Hyomel's) from St. Louis and vicinity are furnished with every complete treatment. Every time you inhale the sweet, fragrant air of Hyomel through this little device you are drawing into your swollen, inflamed and diseased passages a medicated air which will not only reduce all the swelling and inflammation and open your clogged nose and stopped up air passages, but will absolutely and positively destroy every trace of catarrh germ life. If you breathe Hyomel you are sure of the blessed, lasting relief they sell it invariably on the positive guarantee that money paid will be refunded if successful results are not secured from its use. Get a Hyomel outfit from your druggist or mail order and begin to drive the dangerous and disgusting disease from your system forever.—Advertisement.

This morning the market at the wharf was well attended in the early hours of the day and buying was spirited at about the following prices: Spanish mackerel, 15 cents a pound; bluefish, 10 cents a pound; halibut, 13 1/2 cents a pound; sea bass, 10 cents a pound; salmon, 15 cents a pound; large white perch, 12 1/2 cents a pound; carp, 4 and 5 cents a pound; spot, 6 to 8 cents a pound; small white perch, 10 to 15 cents a bunch; yellow perch, 10 to 20 cents a bunch; catfish, 15 to 30 cents a bunch; large gray trout, $11 a barrel; small gray trout, $7.50 a barrel; croakers, $9 a barrel; and butterfish, $12.50 a barrel.

IDEAL CONDITIONS MARK ITS ANNUAL FIELD TRIALS

Montgomery County Foxhunters' Association Inaugurates Sixth Season Today.

Special Correspondence of The Star.
ROCKVILLE, Md., October 29.—At daybreak this morning thirty-five hunters and half a hundred high-class hounds filed out of Rockville to inaugurate the sixth annual field trials of the Montgomery County Foxhunters' Association.

At several of the meets heretofore held by the association the sport has been marred by unfavorable weather, but ideal conditions prevailed this morning, a light rain which fell during the night being all that was necessary to make the trailing well-nigh perfect, and the hunters left here full of enthusiasm over the prospect of a day of the sport.

Red foxes, which are the only kind common to this section, and which know a thing or two about the running game, are said to be unusually numerous hereabouts this year, and it was to the hills of Rock creek, three miles from Rockville, where the wily ones love to cavort, that the hunters headed this morning.

Oyster Roast This Evening.

Within a very few minutes after the hunting grounds were reached a hot scent was struck and a few seconds thereafter the big pack of dogs was in full cry behind a fast-traveling Reynard. Some of the horsemen attempted to follow the hounds, while others enjoyed the sport from various points of vantage. It is probable that the sport will be continued until well into the afternoon.

This evening an oyster roast will be held at the fair grounds. About a hundred guests have been invited and the occasion is expected to prove an enjoyable feature of the annual event.

HAS SCHOOL FOR EMPLOYEES.

Hecht & Co. Inaugurate a System for Teaching Science of Selling. The management of Hecht & Co. has established a school for its employees in which modern business methods are taught. The clerks behind the counters of this department store are given a course which enables them to better understand their work and thus give greater satisfaction to their customers and employers.

Describes Trip Around the World.

A descriptive talk on a trip around the world with the Atlantic fleet was given last night by Lieut. B. McCandless of the bureau of operations, Navy Department, at the October meeting of Washington navy yard branch of the American Society of Marine Draftsmen, held at Northeast Temple. Reports of the economic committee on wage increases were also read at the meeting.

The International Novice Championship Typewriter Contest

At the Annual Business Show at the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory, New York, October 25, 1915,

WAS WON BY

Miss Hortense S. Stollnitz

Operating a Model 10

Remington Typewriter

Miss Stollnitz wrote 114 words per minute net for fifteen minutes, a world's record for novices in International Championship Contests

This novice event is open only to those who have never used a typewriter previous to September, 1914. It is therefore the one event that gives a real indication of the machine's part in the development of speed in typewriting.

The question of typewriter merit is not determined by what the exceptional operator of exceptional training can do, but by what the average operator can do.

And the best answer to this question, afforded by any speed contest, is, what can the novice do?—for the novice stage is the stage through which all operators must pass.

By this test the Remington has proved itself to be THE operator's machine—the machine which enables the operator to do the most and the best work from the very outset, and ever after.

AMERICAN KILLED BY VILLA OFFICER

Dragged From the Train by Mexicans, Partner Says, and Summarily Executed.

EL PASO, Tex., October 29.—Charles Boone of Rodey, N. M., was killed Wednesday by a Villa officer at Guzman, seventy-five miles from Juarez, according to Boone's partner, James Welsh, who escaped on a locomotive, reaching here.

Boone is the second American cattleman to be killed in western Chihuahua by Villa soldiers. James Parker was executed near Guzman a week ago, according to reports. He was endeavoring to bring a herd to the border for American owners. The soldiers accused him of stealing cattle.

"Boone and I were bringing a shipment of stock to the border," said Welsh on his arrival here. "Our train was stopped at Guzman and Villa soldiers came out from the station. They saw Boone first and dragged him from the train, telling him they were going to kill him. He said to me as they were leading him off: 'It's all up with me now.' They had gone only a few steps when Col. Hernandez gave the order to shoot Boone and an officer fired at him.

I saw Boone fall. Then they said they were going to search the train for more Gringos." Soldiers, acting, it is said, under Villa orders, are slaughtering thousands of cattle in northern Mexico.

STUDYING P-4 REPORTS.

Navy Department Not Yet Decided as to Future Action.

To determine whether proceedings should be started to fix the responsibility for the accident to submarine P-4, which cost twenty-one lives, officials of the navy bureau are studying the final report of the naval board of inquiry. A previous board of inquiry held that every precaution had been taken by officials of the navy yard at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and by the P-4's personnel before her fatal trip.

Secretary Daniels said that he could make no statement as to what further steps might be taken until the bureau officials completed their study of the reports and presented their findings. Secretary Daniels said that a published statement of the findings of the P-4's second naval board and attributing the loss of the vessel to the fact that certain air valves had been left open would be referred to the bureau chiefs.

Von Buelow Going to Geneva.

GENEVA, via Paris, October 29.—Prince von Buelow, the former German imperial chancellor, accompanied by two other persons, is expected here. It is reported that his visit will be in connection with a special mission for the German government, says the Tribune, and that he will meet another diplomat in Switzerland.

OLD-FASHIONED G. O. P. RALLY AT SILVER SPRING

Albert A. Daub Says Maryland Campaign Is Not One Between Parties.

Silver Spring, Md., October 29.—That Senator Blair Lee was twice defeated for the democratic nomination for governor in Maryland "because he would not crook the hinges of the knee, that thrift might follow fawning," and that the present campaign in Maryland is not between political parties, but between independent thinking citizens of the state and the democratic party machine, headed by Senator John Walter Smith, were the declarations of Albert A. Daub, republican candidate for attorney general, at an old-fashioned republican campaign meeting held in the armory at Silver Spring last night. The meeting was attended by several hundred persons. Predictions as to the overthrow of the democratic machine in November brought bursts of enthusiasm.

Ovington E. Weller, republican candidate for governor, was to have spoken, but was detained at his home on account of a severe accident to a close friend. In addition to Albert A. Daub, the speakers were Robert L. Duer, candidate for controller; Edward W. Byrns, who presided, and Gov. Blair and W. E. Miller of Salisbury, who came to fill the place of Mr. Weller. Ashley M. Gould of Washington also addressed the meeting. Music was furnished by the Forest Glen Band.

ARGUE "TRADING STAMP" LAW

Life of the Business at Issue in the United States Supreme Court.

The validity of trading stamp legislation in states which have enacted laws against the giving of premiums with goods sold is said to depend upon the outcome of arguments today before the United States Supreme Court over the constitutionality of such laws in the states of Florida and Washington. Lawyers seeking to have the laws annulled declared in presenting the cases to the court for decision that last year $125,000,000 was given away as premiums and that the life of the business was at issue. They urged that the laws worked discrimination against one form of advertising and that other methods of advertising might with equal justice be stricken down arbitrarily if this one is forbidden.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD DRAWS UP PETITION

Will Urge National Prohibition Amendment and Federal Censorship for Moving Picture Films.

A national prohibition amendment, a federal censorship of moving picture films, a Sunday rest law in the District of Columbia and a prohibition against the exportation from the United States of intoxicating liquors to Africa, were among the things urged at the closing session yesterday afternoon of the Presbyterian Synod of Baltimore, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church. Petitions in connection with the enactment of such laws are to be sent to Congress. It is stated each of the petitions would be supported by a national movement of churches to be initiated by the synod. Prior to the opening of the afternoon session the delegates went to the White House in automobiles, where they were received by President Wilson. They later visited the Scottish Rite Temple. Reports of committees on evangelism, church erection, the army and navy, memorial and finance were given at the session. The adjournment took place about 4:30 o'clock, after which supper was served in the Sunday school rooms.

France Gets $200,000,000 Gold.

PARIS, October 29.—In response to the request of the government last June that private individuals exchange their gold coins for notes, a total of 1,000,000,000 francs ($200,000,000 gold) has been turned over to the Bank of France.
